Site Updates

Allakaket

Students are fundraising for Jr. High Basketball travel to Kaltag on October 26th, and also for new jerseys. The students are looking for an funding that would purchase an ice cream machine for the students at school. The ice cream would be used to promote student achievement. Every Saturday there is Family Game Night at the school, and there will also be a Halloween Carnival.

Hughes

Wendy Cleveland was selected as a Youth Delegate for TCC and will be attending the AFN Elders and Youth Conference in Anchorage. The Hughes Tribe will also be paying for Olin's way to attend. Students are participating in rifle, having a haunted house for Halloween, and a Halloween Carnival.

Huslia

Ophelia Moses was chosen Rachel Weter is attending Camp Kick Ash in Aniak. Students have an FEA Advisor, Casey Weter.

Kaltag

The Jr. High students are fundraising to attend the Galena Basketball Tournament. They are fundraising by doing family game nights, concessions, raffles, cake walks, and will be having a Halloween Carnival.

Manley

Students will be having a Halloween play, and freshman will attend the fly in.

Nulato

The Jr. High is fundraising to attend the Kaltag Basketball Tournament the weekend of October 26th. Nulato will be hosting their Jr. High Tournament in November. Recently held a health and parenting fair at the school that ended with a potlatch to celebrate the people who helped out. There was a pediatrician in town who did physicals for the athletes. Staff is planning on starting Ice Cream Fridays again soon, and Cimeon is attending the Freshman Fly In.

Minto

The students are very busy, they have an active student council planning events and fundraisers with their student advisor, Monica Garza. They held a Jr. High Basketball Tournament with 4 boys teams, and 3 girls teams. There was a dance the last day of the tournament. Fundraisers include a garage sale, planning with the Booster Club, Navajo taco, and pizza sales. Students held a movie night with 2 movies going on, one for the older students and one for the younger students. They will be having a Halloween Carnival/dance, Haunted House at the Lodge, and would like to have a winter ball in November or December.

Upcoming events

Student board representative will be attending the Alaska Association of School Board Youth Leadership Conference in Anchorage, November 1-4.

The four AWSC elected officers will be attending the Alaska Association of School Government statewide conference in Wasilla, October 25-28.

The student representatives in Minto expressed interest in hosting Phlight Club and putting together a “winter ball” for all the students. Students were asked to present the idea to their advisor Monica Garza, Administrator, and CSC.

TCC is accepting applications for any youth ages 14-18 to be a Youth Delegate for the Education Summit in Fairbanks, November 14-15.
